Presenting the 1961 Pioneer

Foreword

To a passerby this is just another school building; but to students of Romney High School it means much, much more. The friends made here, the achievements mastered, the disappointments suffered, the knowledge acquired here have made R. H. S. a very special building.

It would be difficult to ever forget the crowded halls . . . the assemblies . . . the excitement of a close game . . . the pass slips . . . the cold bumpy bus rides . . . cramming for tests . . . the discussion in class . . . the mad scramble for the door . . .

And so, here is your book, the 1961 PIONEER, which we give to you. May you always remember this memorable year in good old R. H. S.

Dedication

To you, Mom and Dad, we want to show our appreciation. For your understanding and unselfish love; for your encouragement when we were depressed; and for your unlimited patience, we say thanks. You have guided us along life's way, have shared our triumphs, tolerated our follies, and sympathized with our mistakes. It is hard for us to voice our thoughts too deep to be expressed. So with our humble hearts we dedicate this, the 1961 Pioneer, to you, our parents.

ADMINISTRATION

High School students of today are the leaders of tomorrow. As you, the younger generation, learn to think creatively and to act cooperatively, you will take over that responsibility. In the meantime there is work to be done, as there always will be.

Students,

My expression of good wishes go to each of you for the years ahead and I would like to tell three rules of life given me some years ago. I pass them on, for I have found them practical. The first is to "Go," the second is to "Keep Going," and the third is "Help Someone Else to Go."

Sincerely,
BERNARD D. HUGHES, Superintendent
Hampshire County Schools

ACTIVITIES

The Pioneer '61 Staff

The 1961 Pioneer Staff can now resume lives of normal, mediocre people. We can "loiter in the halls" and waste time - no deadlines to meet, no copy to type, no ads to sell! But we shall take with us the satisfaction of knowing that, for a while, we took our place with previous staffs as loyal supporters of RHS, and as leaders in school life. It will take a while to rehabilitate ourselves to former ways of thinking and talking. From now on, cuts will be injuries, not pictures; galleys will be on ships, not proof-sheets; dummies will be dolls, not blueprints of books. Our compensation for graduating from the Romney Staff will be the record, the epitome of school loyalty, the 1961 PIONEER.

"Rockabye Baby"

The Romney National Thespian Troop 681 presented the Senior Class Play, "Rockabye Baby," on November 17, 1960. The play was under the direction of Mrs. Frances McNeill.

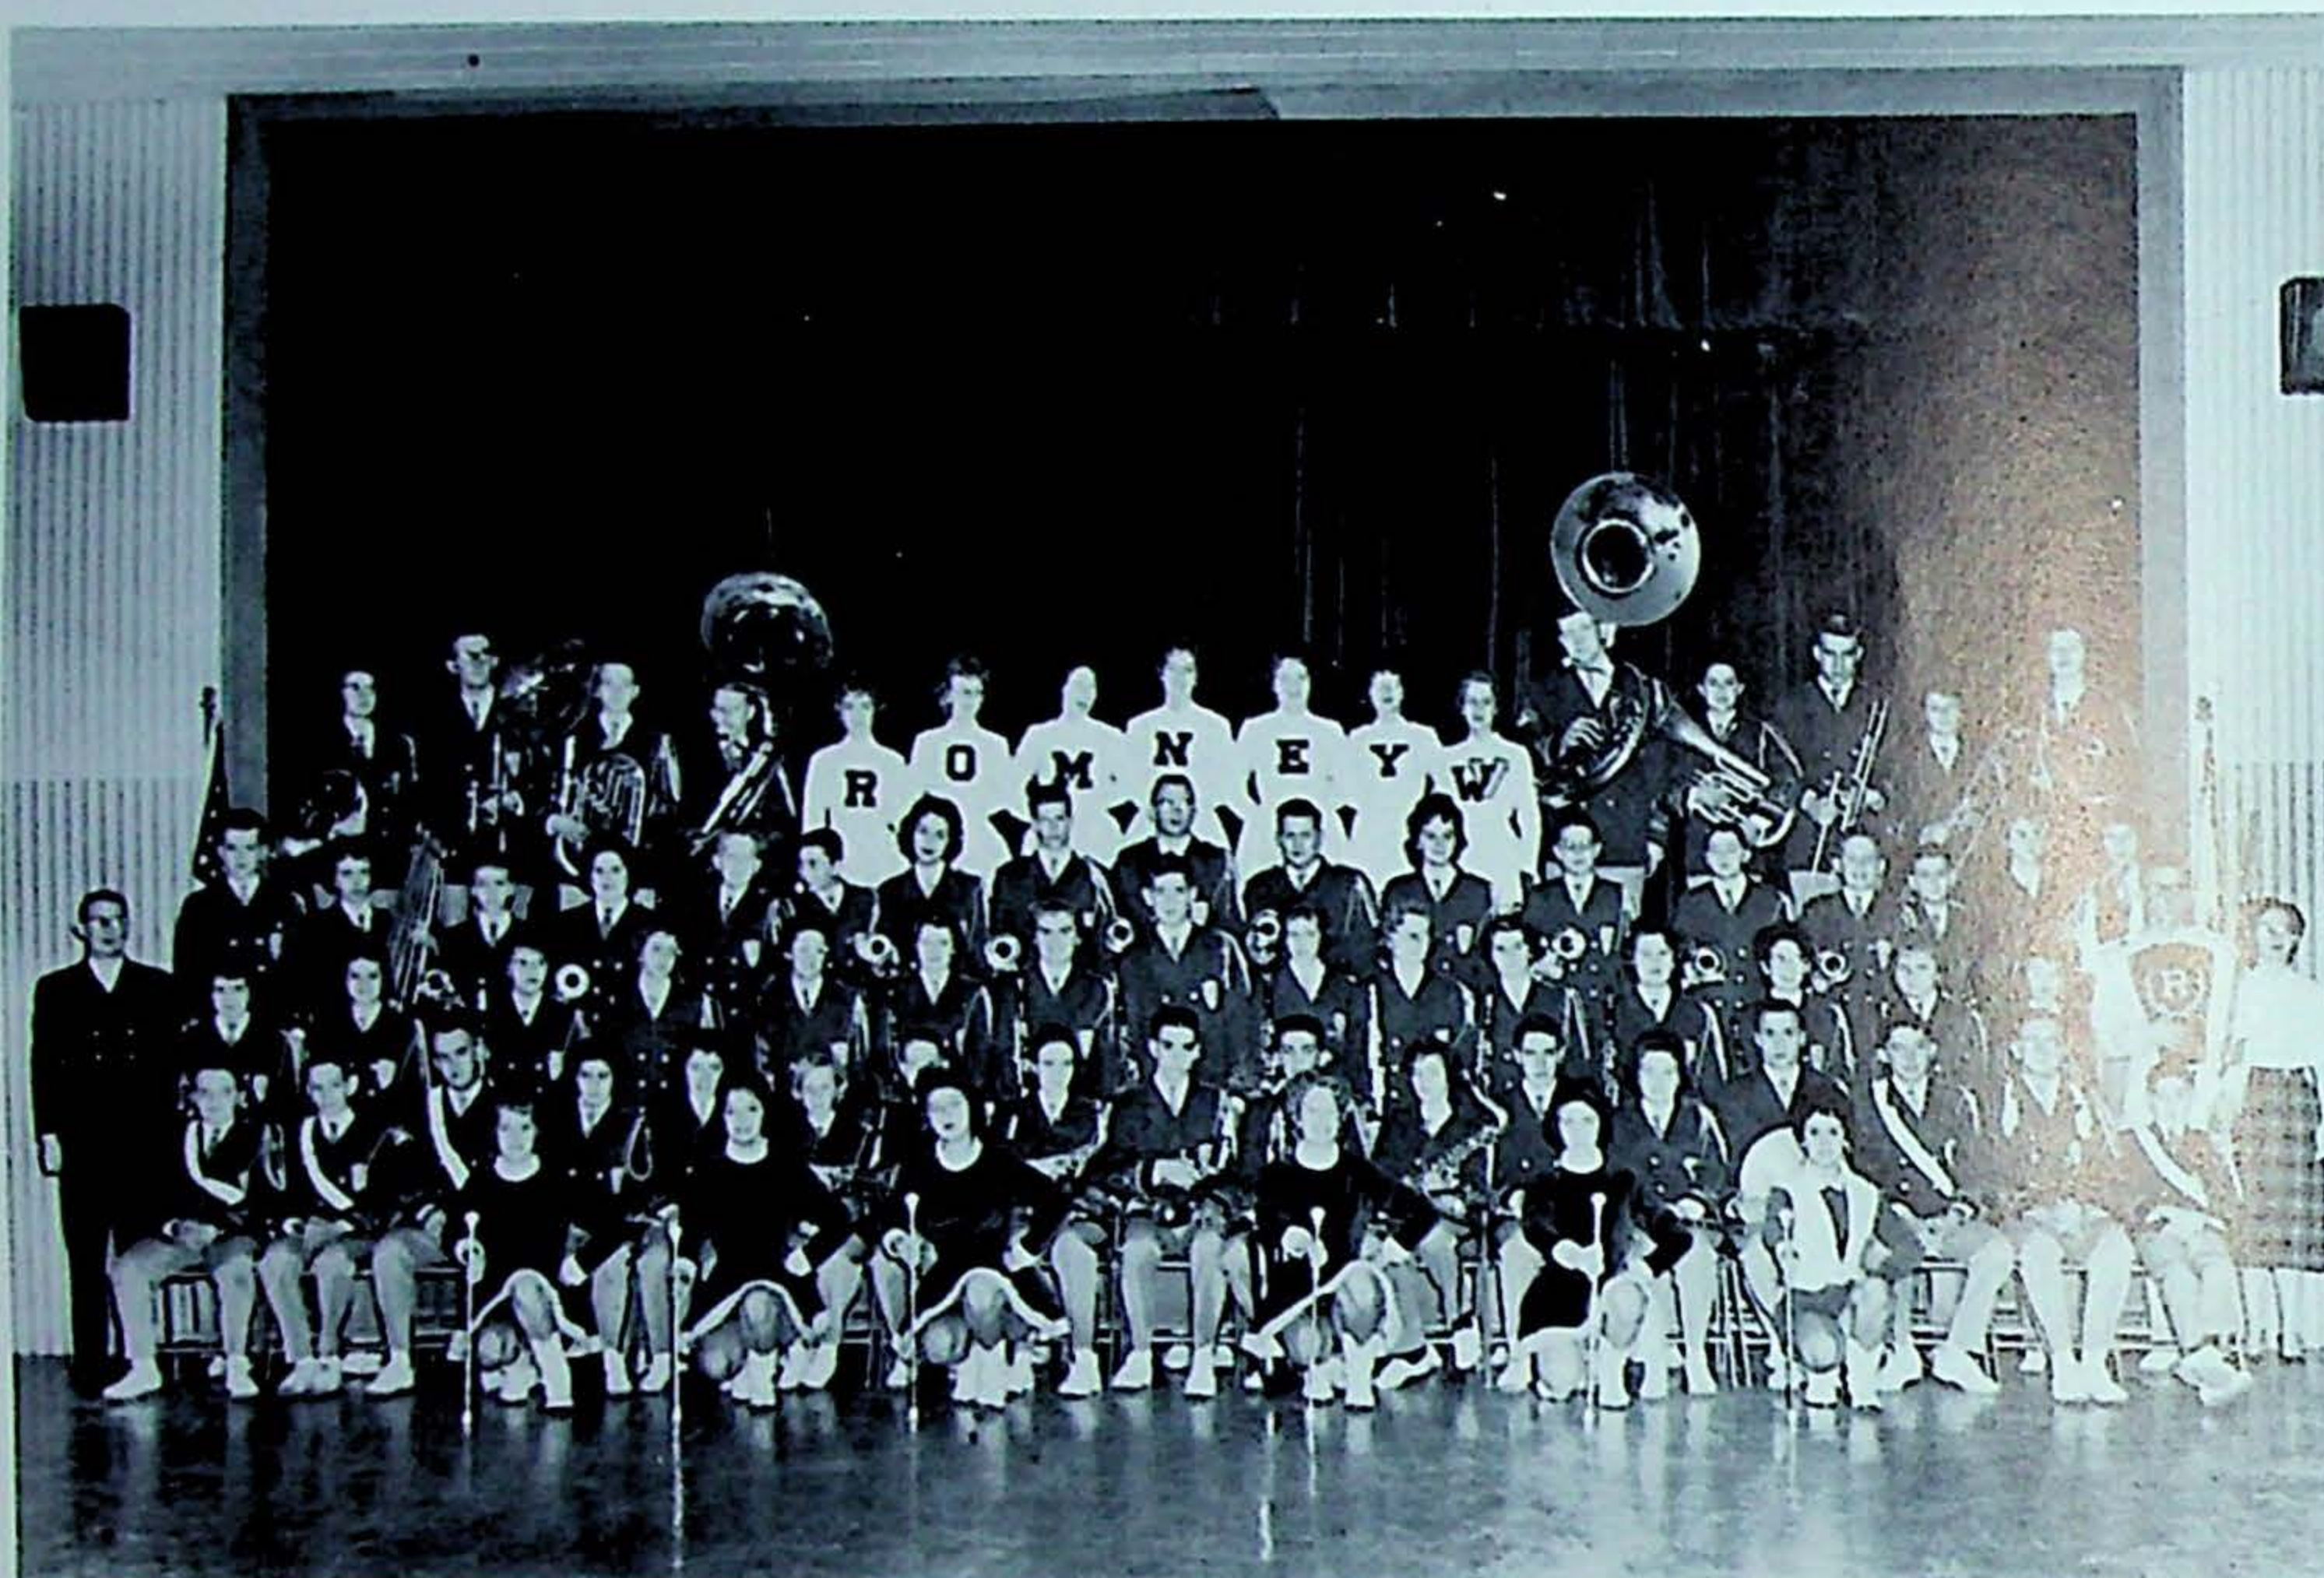

THE STORY

"Mrs. Millikan" (Ellen Pugh) is a widow whose only son was reported killed in the last war. To get away from grasping in-laws, she has taken this fictitious name, left her home to her husband's relatives, and fled to another town, where she has opened a boarding house for business women. She is helped by an old family cook and devoted friend, Ophelia (Frances Pouder), and by Hildegard (Judy Burns), a cultured, attractive girl, who is acting as maid.

A strange assortment of women come to be boarders. There's Miss Bascom (Carol Snyder), a prim Latin teacher, with a faithful following of girl students - Alda (Judy Haines), Kay (Jane Swisher), Jennie (Carol Beery). There's Anita (Barbara Pownall), a snooping, would-be reporter; two secretaries, Gale (Hilda Loy) and Jody (Diane Maphis); Pamela (Sallie Stump), a television student; two nurses (Gloria Martin and Betty Haines); and a mysterious young mother, Mary Howe (Trudy Rannells), with her baby-taken in temporarily through sympathy, in spite of an advertised "No Babies."

Anita, nosing about, is convinced her suspicions are right - that "Mrs. Millikan" is the aunt, Mrs. Howe, of whom she had so often heard and on whose money she had hoped to sponge. She is annoyed at the taking in of the baby and determined to make the young mother so unhappy she will leave. All the boarders suspect Anita when the baby disappears; but no charges are pressed when the baby is found. Gail and Jody have long suspected Mary of being the widow of an amnesia victim of the war, a former secretary of their school. Their principal had urged them to look for her and beg her to open a box left with him, as perhaps helpful in finding her husband's people. When they produce the box for Mary to open, these hopes prove true; for as "Mrs. Millikan" looks at the picture of Mary's husband Bob, she discovers he is her own dearly loved son. Anita is repentant; and Mrs. Howe and Mary find consolation in each other and in Bob's little son.

The Pioneer Marching Band took part in many activities during the year. They began their busy season by performing at our football games. They, then journeyed to Elkins for the Forest Festival and to Kingwood for the Buckwheat Festival. Romney acted as the host school for the area Band Festival, and later took part in the Band Clinic. The band presented a Concert at Christmas and their Annual Minstrel Show in April.

Romney received the opening ball and marched 64 yards in 12 with John Blue scoring a 3 yard plunge and battled Moorefield to a 6-6 tie.

Terry Mezzatesta scored twice to pace Romney to a 13-0 victory over Green Bank.

Night football didn't agree with the Pioneers as they took it on the nose 19-0 at Beall. Ends Frank Cosner and Hubert High were out of the lineup due to injuries.

SENIOR PLAYERS

 JOHN BLUE - Quarterback
 EUGENE BUCKLEY - Halfback
 EMORY NAZLEROD - Halfback
 RONALD L. WILSON - Guard

A Mezzatesta to Blue to Cosner pass set up the only touchdown with Jim Kline going over with less than a minute of play remaining to give Romney a 6-0 upset victory over Ridgeley. It was the climax of the season for the Pioneers.

Pioneer football reached a season low at Petersburg where their every move was a mistake, resulting in Romney being on the short end of a 32-0 score.

Kenny Ayers had his best night of the season at Morgantown under the lights where he led the Pioneer attack that ended in a 7-7 deadlock.

The Pioneers lost 40-7 to Farmington to close their nine game schedule before a wet Homecoming crowd. The score came in the final seconds on a Blue to Ayers pass.

Coach Don Peter's Freshmen won four of their five games. It was the first Freshmen Football Team Romney has had. The Junior Varsity played one game, losing 13-12 to Beall. The Freshmen beat Keyser 14-12, Ridgeley 14-12, Deaf School 26-7, Keyser 28-0, and lost to Allegheny 20-6.
